Invitation to Public Screening and Live Discussion

November 4, 2020, 6.15 pm (CET)

Join us for a screening of the documentary “Mefloquine: The anti-malarial drug investigation” (2017), selected from the Sheffield Doc Fest 2017.

Scottish filmmaker Cailean Watt attempts to understand his own experiences after taking the anti-malarial drug Lariam produced by Roche.

The film will be followed by a moderated discussion among others with filmmaker Cailean Watt, Dr Remington Nevin (Quinism Foundation), Swiss journalists Rolf Käpeli and Max Schmid.

We are looking forward to an interesting evening on zoom:
